

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

At this crucial election time it is of utmost importance to create fair and balanced news and reporting to the citizens of this country. As a voter, a tax-payer, a citizen, I strongly advocate the FCC to do all in it's power to make sure the rules of public broadcasting be fairly and accurately carried out.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
